PLAINTIFF'S VERIFIED COMPLAINT

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This action arises out of Defendants' violations of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114, et. seq., and 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a) through its infringement of Plaintiff's federally-registered trademarks and Defendants' unfair competition, false designation of origin, passing off, and false advertising related to TLC's federally-registered trademarks, as well as Defendants' violations of the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1030, the Defend Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1836 and Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 40-24-101, et seq., through Defendants' unauthorized access and misuse of Plaintiff's confidential and proprietary computer files. Plaintiff seeks injunctive, monetary, and declaratory relief under the foregoing Acts and the Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C § 2201.

2. TLC is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation providing training and education services to lawyers, and is organized under the laws of Wyoming. TLC is led by a Board of Directors (the "Board").

3. TLC has operated as a Wyoming nonprofit corporation since December 1, 1993.

4. Pursuant to a lease with the Spence Foundation for People's Attorneys, Inc. (the "Spence Foundation"), TLC has conducted its training and education services at the Thunderhead Ranch in Dubois, Wyoming, since its inception in August 1994.

5. In order to protect its intellectual property, TLC applied to and received from the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the "USPTO") the following federally-registered trademarks:

- a. Per Registration Number 4,197,908 (the "'908 Mark"), registered August 28, 2012, TLC possesses a trademark for "TRIAL LAWYERS COLLEGE" in standard characters, without claim to any particular font, style, size, or color. No claim is made to the exclusive right to use "college," apart from the mark as shown. A copy of the '908 Mark is attached hereto as Exhibit "A."
- b. Per Registration Number 4,198,054 (the "'054 Mark"), registered August 28, 2012, TLC possesses a trademark consisting of a stylized design of a cloud with a bolt of lightning. A copy of the '054 Trademark is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

6. TLC has maintained and used the '908 and '054 Marks in interstate commerce since they were issued by the USPTO.

7. As of April 30, 2020, Defendant Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch ("GSTLC"), with the aid of Defendants Gerald L. Spence, John Zelbst, Rex Parris, Joseph H. Low, and Kent Spence (collectively, the "Individual Defendants") and Defendant John Doe, operates as a Wyoming nonprofit corporation with its registered principal place of business in Jackson, Wyoming.

8. Upon information and belief, through GSTLC, Defendants intend to offer services substantially similar to those that TLC has offered since August 1994.

9. Defendants' use of the business name "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch" constitutes infringement of the '908 Mark.

10. Additionally, as described more fully below, Defendants have infringed on TLC's intellectual property by sending and/or authorizing the sending of certain communications and publications that wholly incorporate both the '908 Mark and the '054 Mark (collectively, the "TLC Marks") without TLC's authorization.

11. These recent communications and publications, which Defendants have sent or caused to be sent to TLC alumni, Board members, and other individuals with connections to TLC, as well as to the public, falsely suggest that Defendants represent TLC, and that GSTLC constitutes TLC. Defendants' actions indicate that they seek to pass GSTLC off as TLC, thus misleading and confusing those persons who receive Defendants' communications. Defendants' actions infringe on TLC's Marks and further violate the Lanham Act, Computer Fraud and Abuse Act, Defend Trade Secrets Act, and constitute misappropriation of trade secrets under Wyoming state law.

12. TLC has already been harmed by Defendants' actions, and will continue to be harmed irreparably if Defendants are not enjoined from (i) infringing on TLC's Marks, including using the confusingly-similar business name "Gerry Spences Trial College at the Thunderhead Ranch"; (ii) making false and misleading communications and publications in violation of state and federal law; (iii) improperly accessing and using TLC's confidential and proprietary information.

13. TLC thus seeks injunctive relief in the form of a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, and permanent injunction, to cease Defendants' willful, malicious, and improper conduct, as well as other forms of relief as set forth below.

THE PARTIES

14. Plaintiff, The Trial Lawyers College, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Wyoming. The Trial Lawyers College's registered principal place of business is 1623 Central Avenue, Cheyenne, WY 82001. From August 1994 through May 8, 2020, TLC operated at the Thunderhead Ranch, Dubois, Wyoming.

15. Defendant, Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch, is a Wyoming nonprofit corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Wyoming. GSTLC's registered principal place of business is 199 E. Pearl Ave., Suite 103, P.O. Box 4430, Jackson, Wyoming 83001. Upon information and belief, GSTLC plans to operate at the Thunderhead Ranch, Dubois, Wyoming.

16. Defendant, Gerald L. Spence ("Gerry Spence"), is an individual residing in or near Santa Barbara, California.

17. Defendant, John Zelbst ("Zelbst"), is an individual residing in Lawton, Oklahoma.

18. Defendant, Rex Parris ("Parris"), is an individual residing in Lancaster, California.

19. Defendant, Joseph H. Low ("Low"), is an individual residing in Pacific Palisades, California.

20. Defendant, Kent Spence, is an individual residing in Jackson, Wyoming.

21. Defendant, John Doe ("Doe"), is an individual whose precise identity is unknown, but who is believed to be an alumnus of TLC. TLC will amend its Complaint to state the legal name of Doe upon learning his/her true identity.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

22. Jurisdiction is based upon 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1367. This action involves claims arising under the Constitution, laws or treaties of the United States, specifically, the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051, et seq., the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1030, and the Defend Trade Secrets Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1836. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over TLC's claims under Wyoming law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

23. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant GSTLC because it is a citizen of Wyoming. Moreover, the Court possesses personal jurisdiction over all Defendants because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims asserted herein occurred in this district.

24. Venue in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims asserted herein occurred in this district.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

25. TLC is dedicated to training and educating lawyers and judges who are committed to the jury system and to representing and obtaining justice for individuals; the poor, the injured, the forgotten, the voiceless, the defenseless and the damned, and to protecting the rights of such people from corporate and government oppression.

26. Since it began operations in August 1994, TLC has operated pursuant to a lease agreement at the Thunderhead Ranch, located in Dubois, Wyoming.

27. Defendant Gerry Spence founded TLC in 1993, and has been affiliated with TLC in various capacities since its founding. Gerry Spence's prominent role and involvement with TLC is well-known in the legal community.

28. Defendant Zelbst has been affiliated with TLC in various capacities since 1999.

29. Defendant Parris has been affiliated with TLC in various capacities since 1995.

30. Defendant Low has been affiliated with TLC in various capacities since 1998.

31. Defendant Kent Spence has been affiliated with TLC in various capacities since 1995.

32. Defendant Doe is believed to currently be or have been affiliated with TLC as an alumnus of TLC's education services and programs.

33. Each of the Individual Defendants recently served on TLC's Board. As of May 6, 2020, the Individual Defendants' were not elected to the Board, and thus no longer serve on the Board as of that date.

34. Over the course of the last several years, while serving as members of TLC's Board, the Individual Defendants, led by Gerry Spence, sought to expend TLC's funds to build a library in honor of Gerry Spence at the leased premises (the "Spence Proposal"). However, the TLC Board held a December 2019 vote at a duly noticed Board Meeting and declined to support the Spence Proposal, which would have used TLC funds to build a multi-million dollar facility on land TLC did not own.

35. As a result of the Board's decision not to support the Spence Proposal, the Individual Defendants have taken a series of retaliatory actions against individual Board members and TLC.

36. Of relevance here, Gerry Spence, through the Spence Foundation, which owns the land upon which the Thunderhead Ranch sits and from whom TLC leased the premises, terminated TLC's lease agreement. As a result of the termination of the lease agreement, TLC immediately made plans to and did in fact vacate the premises as so required by the terms of the lease and Notice to Vacate letter.

37. With the exception of some property that it owns and that it intends to remove and two improvement projects that it has undertaken but not completed, TLC vacated the Thunderhead Ranch by May 8, 2020. TLC has been prevented from removing its property from Thunderhead Ranch and the disposition of this issue will require further legal proceedings.

38. With knowledge that TLC was in the process of vacating the Thunderhead Ranch due to the Spence Foundation's termination of its lease agreement with TLC, on April 30, 2020, the Individual Defendants caused to be registered with the Wyoming Secretary of State "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch" as a Wyoming nonprofit corporation.

39. Defendants' use of the name "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch" is deliberately confusing because it incorporates the '908 Mark, and because it specifically refers to "Gerry Spence" and "the Thunderhead Ranch," both of which were prominently connected to TLC for decades.

40. TLC maintains confidential and proprietary contact information, including email addresses, of its alumni and other individuals, in order, among other reasons, to communicate via several listservs with individuals regarding its services and other works (the "Database"). The Database is akin to a customer list.

41. Approximately three years ago, TLC took steps to keep the information contained in the Database confidential, such that only a few individuals affiliated with TLC had access to the information contained therein. TLC also maintains written policies setting the parameters of use for the information contained in the Database. The written policies expressly prohibit contacting persons whose personal information is stored in the Database to promote competing programs.

42. Despite these policies and the steps TLC has taken to maintain the confidentiality of the Database, on or before April 30, 2020, the Individual Defendants and Doe, on behalf of Defendant GSTLC, accessed TLC's confidential and proprietary Database to access the contact information stored therein. Defendants used that confidential and proprietary information to create a new listserv (the "New Listserv") and send mass emails to recipients whose information they improperly obtained from the Database. The contact information in the Database was gathered by TLC for its sole use.

43. Defendants' email to the New Listserv falsely stated that the "old listserve was experiencing difficulties" and that "Gerry Spence authorized a new listserve." The email was sent to the New Listserv from "Gerry Spence's Trial Lawyer College" (the "April 30 Email"). A copy of that April 30 Email is attached hereto as Exhibit "C."

44. On May 1, 2020, Defendants posted a video of Gerry Spence to YouTube.com, which bears the date April 30, 2020, and as of May 11, 2020, could be accessed at (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DwBPLFUht5s>) (the "April 30 Video"). The April 30 Video falsely implies that the statements Gerry Spence makes during the video are made on behalf of TLC. Further, the April 30 Video wholly incorporates the TLC Marks without TLC's authorization, and thus infringes upon those trademarks. A copy of the April 30 Video is attached manually as Exhibit "D."

45. For several years, TLC has maintained an account with and regularly used YouTube.com to promote its services and works.

46. The '054 Mark is displayed in the left corner throughout the April 30 Video without TLC's permission. Screenshots from the YouTube video are attached hereto as Exhibit "E."

47. Defendants' unauthorized use of the '054 Mark as displayed in the April 30 Video is likely to cause confusion to viewers of the April 30 Video as to the origin of that video.

Specifically, it suggests that the April 30 Video was published by TLC, when in fact it was published by Defendants on behalf of GSTLC.

48. In the video, Gerry Spence states: “[m]y vision, my friends, for this college, is you. And it will stay alive and beautiful and ringing across the land, as long as you’re there.” As Gerry Spence refers to “this college,” TLC’s Marks are also displayed.

49. Defendants’ combination of Gerry Spence’s use of the phrase “this college” with the superimposition of TLC’s Marks is likely to cause confusion to viewers of the April 30 Video. Specifically, it suggests that the April 30 Video was published by TLC, when in fact it was published by Defendants on behalf of GSTLC.

50. Gerry Spence then further states: “[s]ome people think that Trial Lawyers College is over. Well, I’d like you to know a marvelous secret. It’s a secret for some, but now, you know it too. Trial Lawyers College is going to continue. It’s going to continue with marvelous new leadership. We’re going to continue forwarding the message of our great institution, that we are an organization dedicated to teaching our trial lawyers how to fight the good battle for ordinary people who need our support and our help. And, we’re going to have classes next year where we teach trial lawyers to represent ordinary people.”

51. Gerry Spence’s statements transcribed in the foregoing paragraph are likely to confuse viewers of the April 30 Video, insofar as Gerry Spence’s statements wrongly imply that the April 30 Video was published by TLC, when in fact it was published by Defendants on behalf of GSTLC.

52. The April 30 Video is likely to confuse viewers into believing that GSTLC and TLC are the same nonprofit corporation, when in fact GSTLC is a later-formed business attempting to usurp the goodwill of TLC, and GSTLC is infringing on TLC’s Marks.

53. TLC did not authorize the use of the TLC Marks in the April 30 Video.

54. On May 6, 2020, after TLC held a Special Board of Directors Meeting, Defendants sent another email to the New Listserv from “Gerry Spence via Gerry Spence’s Trial Lawyer College” (the “May 6 Email”). Among other false statements, the May 6 Email falsely portrays the Individual Defendants as speaking on behalf of TLC’s Board. A copy of the May 6 Email is attached hereto as Exhibit “F.”

55. In the May 6 Email, Defendants falsely state that on that date, “Rex Parris then moved to elect Gerry Spence as President and it was seconded but before a vote could be taken John Sloan unilaterally terminated the zoom board meeting. The TLC board then resumed the meeting and Gerry was elected President, John Zelbst, V.P., Joey Low Treasurer, and Kent Spence Secretary.” In fact, those individuals were not elected to those positions on the TLC Board as described therein.

56. After Defendants sent the May 6 Email, TLC received questions from TLC alumni expressing confusion as to whether Defendants’ communications were on behalf of TLC or another entity.

57. On May 8, 2020, TLC sent to all Defendants except Defendant Doe, whose identity is not yet confirmed, cease-and-desist letters requesting that they immediately cease their unlawful actions as described herein. Copies of the cease-and-desist letters are attached hereto in globo as Exhibit “G.”

58. Also on May 8, 2020, after TLC sent the cease-and-desist letters, Defendants sent another message to the New Listserv with additional false statements (the “May 8 Email”). A copy of the May 8 email is attached hereto as Exhibit “H.” Collectively, the April 30 Email, May 6 Email, and May 8 Email are referred to as the “New Listserv Communications.”

59. In the May 8 Email, Defendants falsely claim that: “[p]roperty was recently taken from Thunderhead Ranch without authorization from the Court responsible for settling the current dispute. The TLC Board of Directors considers this property to be stolen, and will aggressively pursue all remedies possible against any individual in possession of the stolen property.” The May 8 Email is signed “Gerry Spence’s Trial Lawyers College.”

60. Defendants’ statements in the May 8 Email that property was improperly taken is false, as is its statement that the “TLC Board of Directors considers this property to be stolen.” In fact, the property referenced in the May 8 Email is the property of TLC, is considered such by the TLC Board, and remains in TLC’s possession.

COUNT 1 – TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT, 15 U.S.C. § 1114, et seq.
ALL DEFENDANTS

61. TLC fully incorporates by reference the allegations of paragraphs 1-59 of this Complaint.

62. Defendants have infringed on the TLC Marks under 15 U.S.C. § 1114, et seq. Defendants’ use of the TLC Marks in their unauthorized New Listserv Communications and in the April 30 Video, as well as their use of the business name “Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch,” is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of TLC’s services and commercial activities. Defendants’ actions have been carried out in willful disregard of TLC’s rights in violation of Section 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

63. Defendants’ wholesale reproduction of the TLC Marks in the New Listserv Communications and the April 30 Video are likely to confuse the recipients of those communications and the public such that they wrongly believe that Defendants’ statements were made on behalf of TLC.

64. Defendants' wholesale reproduction of the TLC Marks in the New Listserv Communications and the April 30 Video are likely to confuse the recipients of those communications and the public such that they also wrongly believe that GSTLC is TLC.

65. Defendants' New Listserv Communications and the April 30 Video have actually confused TLC alumni, who have communicated their confusion to TLC.

66. Defendants intended for their above-listed false statements and infringing actions to cause recipients of the New Listserv Communications and the public to believe that GSTLC is TLC.

67. Defendants used the same marketing channels as TLC in their infringing conduct and in disseminating their false statements insofar as they used, without authority, confidential and proprietary information accessed from TLC's Database to send infringing and false content to the recipients of the New Listserv.

68. Defendants used the same marketing channels as TLC in their infringing conduct and in disseminating their false statements insofar as they published the April 30 Video to YouTube.com, a marketing platform that TLC uses to promote its services.

69. Defendants' use of the business name "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch" is likely to cause confusion to the public through its infringing incorporation of "Trial Lawyers College," which is the subject of the '908 Mark.

70. Defendants' addition of "Gerry Spence" and "at the Thunderhead Ranch" to the protected mark of "Trial Lawyers College" does not alleviate the likelihood of confusion, because Defendants are aware and are relying upon the knowledge that the community TLC primary serves, that is, the legal community, is well-aware of both Gerry Spence's and the Thunderhead Ranch's decades-long affiliation with TLC. Accordingly, the addition of "Gerry Spence" and "at the Thunderhead Ranch” only further encourage the public to confuse GSTLC and TLC.

71. Defendants’ use of the business name “Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch” is intended to confuse the public to believe that GSTLC is equivalent to, the legitimate successor of, or otherwise affiliated with, TLC.

72. Defendants’ conduct as described in the foregoing paragraphs has caused and will continue to cause irreparable harm to TLC because Defendants will continue to unfairly and improperly use and benefit from their infringement of TLC’s Marks, to Defendants’ benefits and to TLC’s detriment.

73. TLC is entitled to injunctive, declaratory, and monetary relief, and all other forms of relief set forth by law and equity, as a result of Defendants’ unlawful actions.

COUNT 2 – UNFAIR COMPETITION, FALSE DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN, PASSING OFF, AND FALSE ADVERTISING UNDER THE LANHAM ACT, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)
ALL DEFENDANTS

74. TLC fully incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1-73 of this Complaint.

75. Defendants have engaged and continue to engage in unfair competition, false designation of origin, passing off, and false advertising under Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a), through their improper access and use of TLC’s Listserv and their infringing use of the TLC Marks to: (i) falsely suggest to recipients of the New Listserv Communications and viewers of the April 30 Video that the information contained therein came from and was approved by TLC; (ii) falsely suggest that the Individual Defendants represent the TLC Board; (iii) make literally false statements about TLC and its management; and (iv) falsely suggest that “Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch” is equivalent to, the legitimate successor of, or otherwise affiliated with TLC.

76. Defendants' unauthorized use of the TLC Marks, and/or their unauthorized use of the Database to send the New Listserv Communications in connection with the purported business of GSTLC is likely to cause the public to mistakenly believe that Defendants' actions originate from, are endorsed by, or are in some way affiliated with TLC. Defendants' actions thus constitute trademark infringement, false designation of origin, passing off, and unfair competition, and are likely to cause the TLC Marks to lose their significance as indicators of origin.

77. Likewise, as outlined above, Defendants have used the TLC Marks in connection with false and misleading descriptions or representations of fact in its communications to the public via the April 30 Video and to the New Listserv Communications, thereby misrepresenting the nature, characteristics, and qualities of GSTLC's and TLC's goods, services, and/or commercial advertising and/or promotion.

78. Upon information and belief, Defendants' use of the TLC Marks as set forth above, and/or its use of TLC's Listserv, is part of a deliberate plan to trade on the valuable goodwill established by TLC. With knowledge of TLC's rights and with the deliberate intention to unfairly benefit from TLC's goodwill, Defendants' actions have been carried out in willful disregard of TLC's rights in violation of 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

79. Defendants introduced their false and misleading statements into commerce by disseminating their communications across state lines to TLC's primary audience—members of the legal community who are interested in TLC's services.

80. As detailed above, Defendants' New Listserv Communications and the April 30 Video attempt to pass off GSTLC as TLC.

81. As detailed above, Defendants' New Listserv Communications attempt to pass off the Individual Defendants as representing and communicating on behalf of TLC.

82. Defendants' misrepresentations in the New Listserv Communications and the April 30 Video include false and disparaging statements about members of the TLC Board.

83. Defendants' misrepresentations in the New Listserv Communications and the April 30 Video have had and continue to have a material effect on TLC's alumni, potential students, and the public.

84. Defendants' misrepresentations in the New Listserv Communications and the April 30 Video actually deceive or tend to deceive a substantial portion of the intended audience.

85. Defendants' misrepresentations in the New Listserv Communications and the April 30 Video will likely influence the deceived audience's decisions related to the services, goods, and/or products offered by TLC.

86. Defendants' misrepresentations in the New Listserv Communications and the April 30 Video have been made to an audience comprised of persons in many states across the United States.

87. Defendants are causing or are likely to cause injury to TLC for which TLC may have no adequate remedy at law. Unless enjoined, Defendants' unlawful activities will continue to cause irreparable injury to TLC.

COUNT 3 – COMPUTER FRAUD AND ABUSE ACT, 18 U.S.C. § 1030
GERRY SPENCES TRIAL LAWYERS COLLEGE AT THE THUNDERHEAD RANCH

88. TLC fully incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-87.

89. As of April 30, 2020, the Individual Defendants were members of TLC's Board, and Defendant Doe is believed to be a TLC alumnus. During the time that the Individual Defendants were members of TLC's Board and during Defendant Doe's affiliation with TLC, TLC did not prohibit them from accessing its computer-based Database, but only permitted such access for performing duties for and for the benefit of TLC.

90. Defendant Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch did not have and has never had access to TLC's Database.

91. The Individual Defendants and Doe undertook their improper access and misuse of the information contained in the Database for the benefit of GSTLC. Thus, knowingly, and with the intent to defraud TLC and the audience that the New Listserv Communications reached, GSTLC improperly accessed TLC's proprietary and confidential electronic data that is stored on its computer system. GSTLC used TLC's proprietary and confidential Database to send false and misleading communications to those individuals whose contact information is contained in the Database.

92. GSTLC's conduct as described herein was and continues to be to its own benefit, and to the detriment of TLC.

93. Through the conduct described herein, GSTLC acted without authorized access and/or exceeded its authorized access to TLC's computer-based data.

94. TLC has suffered damage and loss by reason of these violations, including but not limited to harm to TLC's data, programs, and computer systems and other losses and damage in an amount to be proved at trial, but, in any event, in an amount exceeding $5,000 aggregated over a one-year period.

95. Under the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act, TLC is entitled to and requests an award of compensatory damages and injunctive and other equitable relief.

COUNT 4 – DEFEND TRADE SECRETS ACT, 18 U.S.C. § 1836
ALL DEFENDANTS

96. TLC fully incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1-95 of this Complaint.

97. TLC's Database is confidential and proprietary information which constitutes a trade secret within the meaning of the Defend Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1836.

98. TLC is based in Wyoming, but serves individuals residing in multiple states, and regularly transacts business in states other than Wyoming, including in person and by phone, internet, and mail. TLC's trade secrets relate to this business, and, thus, are frequently used by TLC in interstate commerce.

99. Defendants acquired TLC's trade secrets by improper means, including but not limited to improperly using the information contained in the Database without authorization and for unlawful purposes, including but not limited to sending communications that infringe upon TLC's Marks and include false and misleading statements related to Defendants and TLC.

100. Upon information and belief, GSTLC obtained TLC's trade secrets from the Individual Defendants and Doe, and knew or had reason to know that the Individual Defendants and Doe acquired the trade secrets from TLC by improper means.

101. Upon information and belief, the Individual Defendants and Doe, without TLC's express or implied consent, disclosed TLC's trade secrets to, at minimum, GSTLC.

102. Defendants intend to use, and, upon information and belief, have used TLC's trade secrets, without TLC's express or implied consent, in connection with opening and operating a competing "trial lawyers college" that they intend to operate at the Thunderhead Ranch, the very location that TLC operated from August 1994 through May 2020, despite knowing or having reason to know that the trade secrets were acquired by improper means, and that Defendants had a duty to maintain the secrecy and limit the use of TLC's trade secrets.

103. Defendants' acts of misappropriation are and were willful and malicious.

104. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' acts of misappropriation, TLC has suffered and will suffer irreparable harm and damages. Moreover, Defendants gained an unfair competitive advantage and other unjust enrichment through the misuse of TLC's trade secrets.

105. Under the Defend Trade Secrets Act, TLC is entitled to and requests preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against Defendants to prohibit their actual and/or threatened misappropriation and misuse of TLC's trade secrets.

106. Under the Defendant Trade Secrets Act, TLC is entitled to and requests an award of damages in its favor for actual loss caused by the misappropriation, damages for all unjust enrichment caused by the misappropriation that is not addressed in computing damages for actual loss, and/or damages measured by imposition of liability for a reasonable royalty for the unauthorized disclosure and/or use of TLC's trade secrets.

107. Under the Defend Trade Secrets Act, as a result of Defendants' willful and malicious misappropriation, TLC is entitled to and requests exemplary damages in an amount not more than two times TLC's actual damages, plus reasonable attorneys' fees.

COUNT 5 – MISAPPROPRIATION OF TRADE SECRETS UNDER WYOMING LAW

108. TLC fully incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1-107 of this Complaint.

109. As set forth in paragraphs 96-107 above, Defendants have misappropriated TLC's trade secrets in violation of Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 40-24-101, et seq.

110. As a result of Defendants' misappropriation of TLC's trade secrets under Wyoming law, TLC is entitled to all relief, including damages, attorneys' fees, exemplary damages and injunctive relief, as set forth in Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 40-24-101, et seq.

COUNT 6 – DECLARATORY RELIEF

111. TLC fully incorporates the allegations in paragraphs 1-107 of this Complaint.

112. TLC prays that the Court declare Defendants' actions described herein to be unlawful infringement of the TLC Marks and violations of the Lanham Act, the Computer Abuse and Fraud Act, the Defend Trade Secrets Act, and Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 40-24-101, et seq.

113. As a direct and proximate cause and result of Defendants' actions as described herein, TLC has suffered civil damages, actual damages, compensatory damages, attorneys' fees, exemplary damages, economic damages, loss and injury or, alternatively, nominal damages.

114. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' actions as described herein, TLC is entitled to trebled damages.

115. Alternatively, and directly, if applicable, TLC seeks disgorgement damages from Defendants.

116. Alternatively, and directly, if applicable, TLC seeks lost profits damages from Defendants.

COUNT 7 - INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

118. TLC fully incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-117.

119. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116, TLC is entitled to a temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunction preventing any actual or threatened infringement of its federally-registered Marks by Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and other persons who are in active concert or participation with any of the foregoing (collectively, "Covered Persons"). More specifically, TLC is entitled an injunction prohibiting Defendants' unauthorized use of its Marks, including an order preventing Defendants from using the directly-infringing name "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch."

120. Pursuant to 15 U.S.C. 1125(a), TLC is entitled to a temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunction preventing Covered Persons from engaging in any false designations of origin, passing off, false and misleading statements, false advertising, and/or unfair competition related to TLC's federally-registered Marks. More specifically, TLC is entitled to an injunction prohibiting Covered Persons from taking any actions which suggest that Defendants and/or "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch" is in any way affiliated with the TLC, and/or from taking any actions that mislead or confuse the public regarding the same, and/or from making any false, misleading, and/or disparaging statements about TLC and/or the TLC Board.

121. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1030, TLC is entitled to an injunction preventing Covered Persons from misusing the information in TLC's confidential and proprietary Database to their benefit and to TLC's detriment.

122. Pursuant to Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 40-24-101, et seq., and specifically pursuant to Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 40-24-102, TLC is entitled to an injunction preventing Covered Persons from misusing the information in TLC's confidential and proprietary Database to their benefit and to TLC's detriment.

123. TLC has a substantial likelihood of prevailing on the merits of its claims.

124. Unless the Covered Persons are enjoined from the conduct described herein, there is a substantial threat that TLC will continue to suffer irreparable harm, including infringement of its federally-registered Marks and loss and misuse of its confidential and proprietary information, loss of goodwill, and financial losses that are not presently calculable.

125. The irreparable harm that TLC will suffer if injunctive relief is denied outweighs the potential harm (if any) to Defendants if injunctive relief is granted.

126. Granting the requested injunctive relief will not disserve the public interest.

127. Consequently, without the requirement of posting a bond and from the date of the Temporary Restraining Order until the expiration of the order in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, TLC is entitled to a temporary restraining order and preliminary and permanent injunctive relief as set forth herein.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff The Trial Lawyers College respectfully requests that Defendants be cited to appear and answer, and that TLC be awarded relief against Defendants as follows:

- a. Enter judgement in its favor and against Defendants, and order Defendants to pay damages to Plaintiff, in an amount to be proved at trial, plus pre- and post-judgment interest, costs, exemplary/trebled damages, and attorneys' fees as allowed by law;
- b. Enter a temporary restraining order and preliminary and permanent injunction ordering that Defendants, and their respective officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and other persons who are in active concert or participate with any of the foregoing (collectively, "Covered Persons") are restrained and enjoined from:
  - i. directly or indirectly infringing on TLC's Marks, including but not limited to, using TLC's Marks in their unauthorized communications to the Listserv and/or to the public, and/or operating under the directly-infringing name "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch";
  - ii. directly or indirectly engaging in any false designations of origin, passing off, false and misleading statements, false advertising, and/or unfair competition related to TLC's federally-registered Marks and the business of TLC, including but not limited to taking any actions which suggest that “Gerry Spences Trial Lawyers College at the Thunderhead Ranch” is in any way affiliated with TLC and/or that the Defendants represent TLC in any capacity, and/or from taking any actions that mislead or confuse the public regarding the same;

iii. misusing the information contained in TLC’s confidential and proprietary Database to Defendants’ benefit and to TLC’s detriment.

c. Grant TLC such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

PLAINTIFF DEMANDS A TRIAL BY JURY.

Dear Tribe Members,

The old listserv is experiencing difficulties. Some members of the tribe are not receiving emails and some are unable to post to the listserv.

We don't know whether tribe members are being intentionally silenced or whether there are legitimate technical errors causing the problem.

To solve the problem, Gerry Spence has authorized a new listserv. Your e-mail has been added.

Feel free to use this listserv to communicate with the tribe. Just type gerry.spence.college@gaggle.email in the "To:" field of your email and your message will reach the entire tribe. Just reply to an email from the listserv, and your reply will be sent to the tribe.

If you don't want to participate, click the "unsubscribe" link at the bottom of any email from this listserv.

If you would prefer to receive only one email a day from this listserv, click the link that says "settings" and select "digest."

We look forward to hearing your voice. It is important that our tribe stays unified during these trying times.

Sincerely,
Gerry Spence's Trial Lawyers College

Subject: NEW BOARD ELECTED AT TODAY'S BOARD MEETING

To: Gerry Spence's Trial Lawyers College <gerry.spence.college@gaggle.email>

ELECTION RESULTS

The Trial Lawyers College held a board meeting this afternoon on Zoom. Ten board members were in attendance, along with two non-board members, Maren Chaloupka and Dana Cole.

The majority of the board re-elected Gerry Spence, Rex Parris, Kent Spence, Imagine Spence, Joey Low, and John Zelbst as the board members of The Trial Lawyers College by a 6 to 4 vote. Other past members were not re-elected.

Rex Parris then moved to elect Gerry Spence as President and it was seconded but before a vote could be taken John Sloan unilaterally terminated the zoom board meeting. The TLC board then resumed the meeting and Gerry was elected President, John Zelbst, V.P., Joey Low Treasurer, and Kent Spence Secretary.

HOUSEKEEPING MATTERS:

1. Based on group member requests, the gaggle settings have been updated to show the email addresses of individual group members. This will make it easier for members to reply in private to friends who post to the group.
1. The administrator name "Gerry Spence" was automatically appended to the group's administrator account when the group was originally created. This was an oversight. The gaggle settings have been changed to show all administrator generated emails as "From: Administrator." Apologies for any confusion this created and for any other technical errors as we adapt to this new system. The creation of this ListServ was approved by Gerry Spence and the current board of the Trial Lawyers College.

Sincerely,
Gerry Spence's Trial Lawyers College

Re: Trademark Infringement – Cease and Desist

Dear Mr. Spence:

It has come to our attention you are making unauthorized and damaging use of the trademark Trial Lawyers College. The following are the unauthorized and damaging actions of which we are currently aware:

- On or just before April 30, 2020, Gerry Spence's step-son, Christopher Hawks, filed Articles of Incorporation for a new non-profit corporation named, "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyer College at the Thunderhead Ranch." Plaintiffs' new nonprofit corporation uses TLC's trademark as a part of its name.
- On or before April 30, 2020, the Plaintiffs accessed TLC's database of emails (the "Listserve") and used their access to create a new Listserve and send a mass email. The email stated the "old listserve was experiencing difficulties" and that "Gerry Spence authorized a new listserve." The email was sent from "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyer College."
- On May 1, 2020, the Plaintiffs posted a video to YouTube.com (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DwBPLFUht5s>) where TLC's trademark and logo are used in connection with the Plaintiffs' new company name, "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyer College at the Thunderhead Ranch."

- On May 6, 2020, the [former] Minority Directors/Plaintiffs held a meeting immediately following TLC's Special Board of Directors Meeting (where the Plaintiffs were not re-elected to the Board of Directors of TLC). The Plaintiffs' follow-up meeting, a sham and masquerade, was held to further and solidify Plaintiffs' take-over ambitions and perception with TLC's 2000+ alumni that their subsequent and infringing organization was the actual Trial Lawyers College. After this sham meeting, and in furtherance of this general approach, the Plaintiffs used TLC's Listserve, again, unbelievably, to send a second mass email to TLC's alumni. The email stated "Election Results" notifying TLC's alumni that Plaintiffs had elected themselves to the Board of Directors, and "Housekeeping Matters," where Plaintiffs portrayed themselves as the Board of TLC to TLC's alumni. The email was sent from "Gerry Spence via Gerry Spence's Trial Lawyer College."
- Throughout this period, the [former] Minority Directors/Plaintiffs and the new corporation have continued to use the Thunderhead logo, which is a logo trademarked by Trial Lawyers College, all in furtherance of a prohibited approach seeking to confuse and mislead the public.

Under federal registration laws, TLC is the owner of the trademark "Trial Lawyers College" currently with the United States Patent and Trademark Office under the following registration number: 85514661

Additionally, TLC is the owner of its logo, the Thunderhead Mark, currently with the United States Patent and Trademark Office under the following registration number: 85517685

We hereby demand that you immediately cease and desist use of TLC's trademark and logo that has caused and will continue to cause misrepresentation, infringement and damages in relation to TLC's distribution, advertising, marketing, education, training, identification, and public perception of its training products and services.

1. Cease all communication with TLC's Listserve, alumni, donors and prospective students.
2. Cease sending mass emails to TLC's Listserve and disparaging TLC's Board Members.
3. Remove the video posted on YouTube.com (at the link above) and cease publishing anything online, including all social media sites, that may confused TLC's alumni and/or the public about TLC's trademark: Trial Lawyers College or the Thunderhead logo.

4. Dissolve or rename the newly incorporated non-profit corporation, "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyer College at the Thunderhead Ranch," as it is a direct infringement of TLC's trademark.

If you fail to comply with the aforementioned demand(s) within 3 days we will have no choice but to pursue all causes of action and applicable relief and remedies to protect TLC's interests and trademarks.

It is in our best interests to have this issue amicably settled in an effort to avoid further legal remedies as provided by State and Federal laws.

- On or just before April 30, 2020, Gerry Spence's step-son, Christopher Hawks, filed Articles of Incorporation for a new non-profit corporation named, "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyer College at the Thunderhead Ranch." Plaintiffs' new nonprofit corporation uses TLC's trademark as a part of its name.
- On or before April 30, 2020, the Plaintiffs accessed TLC's database of emails (the "Listserve") and used their access to create a new Listserve and send a mass email. The email stated the "old listserve was experiencing difficulties" and that "Gerry Spence authorized a new listserve." The email was sent from "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyer College."
- On May 1, 2020, the Plaintiffs posted a video to YouTube.com (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DwBPLFUht5s>) where TLC's trademark and logo are used in connection with the Plaintiffs' new company name, "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyer College at the Thunderhead Ranch."

- On May 6, 2020, the [former] Minority Directors/Plaintiffs held a meeting immediately following TLC's Special Board of Directors Meeting (where the Plaintiffs were not re-elected to the Board of Directors of TLC). The Plaintiffs' follow-up meeting, a sham and masquerade, was held to further and solidify Plaintiffs' take-over ambitions and perception with TLC's 2000+ alumni that their subsequent and infringing organization was the actual Trial Lawyers College. After this sham meeting, and in furtherance of this general approach, the Plaintiffs used TLC's Listserve, again, unbelievably, to send a second mass email to TLC's alumni. The email stated "Election Results" notifying TLC's alumni that Plaintiffs had elected themselves to the Board of Directors, and "Housekeeping Matters," where Plaintiffs portrayed themselves as the Board of TLC to TLC's alumni. The email was sent from "Gerry Spence via Gerry Spence's Trial Lawyer College."
- Throughout this period, the [former] Minority Directors/Plaintiffs and the new corporation have continued to use the Thunderhead logo, which is a logo trademarked by Trial Lawyers College, all in furtherance of a prohibited approach seeking to confuse and mislead the public.

Under federal registration laws, TLC is the owner of the trademark "Trial Lawyers College" currently with the United States Patent and Trademark Office under the following registration number: 85514661

Additionally, TLC is the owner of its logo, the Thunderhead Mark, currently with the United States Patent and Trademark Office under the following registration number: 85517685

We hereby demand that you immediately cease and desist use of TLC's trademark and logo that has caused and will continue to cause misrepresentation, infringement and damages in relation to TLC's distribution, advertising, marketing, education, training, identification, and public perception of its training products and services.

1. Cease all communication with TLC's Listserve, alumni, donors and prospective students.
2. Cease sending mass emails to TLC's Listserve and disparaging TLC's Board Members.
3. Remove the video posted on YouTube.com (at the link above) and cease publishing anything online, including all social media sites, that may confused TLC's alumni and/or the public about TLC's trademark: Trial Lawyers College or the Thunderhead logo.

4. Dissolve or rename the newly incorporated non-profit corporation, "Gerry Spences Trial Lawyer College at the Thunderhead Ranch," as it is a direct infringement of TLC's trademark.

If you fail to comply with the aforementioned demand(s) within 3 days we will have no choice but to pursue all causes of action and applicable relief and remedies to protect TLC's interests and trademarks.

It is in our best interests to have this issue amicably settled in an effort to avoid further legal remedies as provided by State and Federal laws.
